Form 990 (2017)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

RESEARCH CENTER Kessler Foundation researchers improve the quality of life for people with physical and cognitive disabilities through rehabilitation research in its six specialized laboratories under the leadership of noted research directors. The laboratories include Human Performance & Engineering Research, Neuropsychology & Neuroscience, Outcomes & Assessment Research, Spinal Cord Injury Research, Stroke Rehabilitation Research, and Traumatic Brain Injury Research. While the staff of each laboratory has expertise in a particular area, collaboration among Foundation researchers as well as collaborators from around the US and the world, enhances progress toward finding ways to overcome the obstacles faced by people with disabilities caused by brain injury, spinal cord injury, multiple sclerosis, stroke, arthritis, and other chronic neurological and orthopedic conditions. The Foundation has the distinction of having the only 3T MRI scanner solely devoted to rehabilitation research in the United States. Since 1999, the Foundation has invested more than $180 million in research. In 2017, the Foundation was awarded $13 million in new federal, state, and private grants and contracts. Two federal Model System grants establish Kessler Foundation as a center of excellence for both traumatic brain injury (TBI) and spinal cord injury (SCI) research. Model Systems are comprehensive networks that promote independent and collaborative research that will improve the national standard of care for individuals with these devastating injuries. Model Systems are funded by large, multi-year grants sponsored by the National Institute on Disability and Rehabilitation Research. Kessler Foundation is one of only six centers to have dual model systems-Northern New Jersey SCI System and Northern New Jersey TBI System. These model systems are collaborative efforts with Rutgers University-NJ Medical School and Kessler Institute for Rehabilitation.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

PROGRAM CENTER Kessler Foundation focuses on increasing employment opportunities for people with disabilities through its Signature Employment and Community Employment grantmaking programs which fund local and national programs aimed to increase the percentage of Americans with disabilities in the workforce. Special Initiative Grants, an invitation only program, are awarded to projects and organizations that operate within the broad spectrum of rehabilitation and physical disabilities primarily in New Jersey. Rates of unemployment and underemployment are unacceptably high among the millions of people with disabilities in the United States. By working full or part-time, with training and support, many people can find meaningful employment and reap the benefits of greater independence and self-esteem. Having a job enhances social interaction and acceptance in the community, which contribute to a better quality of life. Although individuals living with disabilities represent the largest minority group seeking employment in today's marketplace, they are often not considered an integral component of corporate diversity programs. Through our strategic focus on employment, Kessler Foundation has invested over $41 million since 1999 in organizations that work to create job opportunities through development, placement employer education, and social enterprise. This funding has enabled people with disabilities to overcome the obstacles that often face them and meet the workforce needs of American business. Innovative grant making has introduced creative solutions to help eliminate some of the barriers that prevent people with disabilities from working.

FORM 990, PAGE 6, PART VI, SECTION B, LINE 15A & B	CEO salary is determined by the Compensation Committee and approved by the Board of Trustees. Other staff compensation is recommended by managers, approved by the CEO and reviewed in the aggregate by the Compensation Committee. The Foundation periodically engages an independent third party to conduct a review of comparability of compensation of the CEO and other key positions. The Compensation Committee annually reviews CEO performance and the CEO's employment contract. In 2015, the Foundation engaged a major compensation consultant to conduct a study to determine reasonableness of salary, cash compensation and total compensation for all key positions, including managers, directors, and executive management. All salaries were deemed to be reasonable. In 2016 and 2017, the Foundation engaged a major compensation consultant to perform a market analysis of CEO compensation, which was deemed to be within a competitive range of median salaries for similar positions.
