EIN: 31-1682518
Name: International Rett Syndrome Foundation

Form 990 (2017)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Our commitment to finding treatments and a cure for Rett syndrome compels us to advance cutting edge research. Through our research programs we fund basic, translational and neuro-habilitation research grants throughout the world. We fund post-doctoral researchers, host science symposia to allow for discussions and networking of the world's Rett experts. We fund compound development directly through financial support of high throughput screening systems as well as financially supporting clinical trials. We work to expand access to high quality treatments and care in our support of the Natural History Study, and by hosting monthly meetings of Rett Clinics throughout North America.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

We work to empower families through our educational programming (below) as well as providing personal connection. We provide access to 2 staff members devoted to family engagement and connectivity via email as well as an 800 phone number. We empower families by offering information that is specific to their region as well as personal support that is close to home through our regional representatives program. We empower families by ensuring that their voices and needs are heard as we work with federal officials in the development of funding priorities. We work with drug companies that are designing clinical trials to ensure that the clinical trial environment is family and patient centered.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Educational programming is focused on two areas 1 Raising awareness and understanding of Rett Syndrome through monthly electronic newsletters, twice annual paper newsletters, website, blogs and publications, and 2 Direct education of families and caregivers by hosting regional education days in conjunction with regional associations and clinics as well as hosting a monthly education series that addresses topics of interest to families and caregivers

Part X, Line 2	IRSF is exempt from income taxes under Section 501 of the Internal Revenue Code and a similar provision of Ohio law. However, the IRSF is subject to federal income tax on any unrelated business taxable income. IRSF's IRS Form 990 is subject to review and examination by federal and state authorities. IRSF believes it has appropriate support for any tax positions taken, and therefore, does not have any uncertain income tax positions that are material to the financial statements.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 2	Our Grant award process includes a letter of intent (LOI) submitted to the Foundation. LOIs are reviewed to determine whether the described project fits the intended research program and grant mechanism. Applicants with eligible LOIs are asked to submit a full grant application and a peer-review meeting of scientific reviewers is convened to determine which projects have the highest scientific merit. Research grants are recommended to the foundation's Board of Directors who vote to approve. Researchers are then required to sign an acceptance agreement with the foundation and are required to submit two reports a year on progress. The Chief Science Officer and Manager of Grants & Research review the reports and corresponds with the researcher to ensure proper use of funds. The Foundation makes quarterly payments to all researchers, unless there is a special exception.
