990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part III, Line 2 New Services	Soulforce has updated the mission as articulated in our articles of incorporation to reflect our continued our commitment to the practice of nonviolence while more specifically naming the primary community we have always served and our primary goals for social change. The articles of incorporation now define our mission thus "The specific purposes for which this corporation is organized are to end the political and religious oppression of lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer, and intersex people through relentless, nonviolent resistance." While Soulforce remains committed to social change through political and theological education and nonviolent activism, the audience has shifted away from churches, as they now have their own reform groups, and more toward youth, parachurch organizations, and allied organizations working in many justice movements who seek Soulforce's skills and analysis. To that we have added a more public naming of the spiritual healing and research that we integrate into our work. We have always woven these aspects into our organizing, but we now invest more time and resources into prioritizing these essential practice that uphold the rest of our work.
