Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule D, Part X, Line 2	The Organization is subject to income tax on any unrelated business income, net of related expenses. The accounting standard on Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes, ASC Topic 740, addresses the determination of whether tax benefits claimed or expected to be claimed on a tax return should be recorded in the financial statements. Under this guidance, the Organization may recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by taxing authorities, based on the technical merits of the position. Examples of tax positions include the tax-exempt status of the Organization and various positions related to the potential sources of unrelated business taxable income (UBTI). For the reporting periods presented in these consolidated financial statements, there were no unrecognized tax benefits identified or recorded as liabilities. There were no liabilities for unrelated business income taxes at December 31, 2017 and 2016. The Organization files certain information and income tax returns in the U.S. federal jurisdiction and various other states. The Organization is generally no longer subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service for years before 2014.
