Name: SOUTH CAROLINA CENTER FOR FATHERS AND FAMILIES

Form 990 (2017)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

The South Carolina Center for Fathers and Families (Center) was established in 2002 as a ministry of the Sisters of Charity Health System (SCHS). The Fatherhood initiative of the Sisters of Charity Foundation of South Carolina (Foundation) led to the establishment of six fatherhood organizations. The Center, through a partnership with the Foundation and the South Carolina Department of Social Services, provides financial support for these programs. The community-based programs provide services to low-income fathers around responsible fatherhood, job readiness and employment, parenting and co-parenting, healthy relationships, and additional services on a case by case basis. To date the Center has served more than 16,400 fathers and families and has impacted the lives of countless children.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

The Jobs not Jail program sponsored through state appropriation since 2012 has been very successful. This program offers fathers who are behind in child support payments an alternative to incarceration. Through employment training these fathers can obtain work at a living wage which in turn enables them to support their children. In 2017 this program gave 1,238 men the opportunity to gain employment and meet their child support obligations rather than go to jail. This resulted in a savings to taxpayers of $7.8M.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

The Health Access Initiative provides health screenings and health education for fathers, thus providing fathers a better way to provide for their children by becoming healthier and dealing with potential health issues at an early stage. With improved health, fathers will maintain better work records which will enable them to retain employment and support their children. With the ability to support their children these fathers can become an integral part of their children's lives.

Schedule I, Part I, Line 2	The Center's Board must approve all grants. The Fatherhood programs currently receiving funding have been funded through the Center for several consecutive years. The Center evaluates the performance and level of service delivery of each program bi-annually to ensure that the appropriate investment is made to each program. The Center also evaluates which program will benefit from certain grant proposals. Each grantee receives an annual review of their compliance with A-133 audit requirements and other grant specific requirements. Communication between grantees and the Center is maintained through phone calls, emails, and site visits for technical assistance and capacity building. In 2017 one of the programs was required to have an A-133 audit completed.
