| RELATED ORGANIZATION COMPENSATION | SCHEDULE J, PART II The volunteer board members and officers are compensated by a related organization. No part of the related entity compensation is for services rendered to the filing organization. The executive compensation for those individuals is paid by a related organization (Oklahoma Blood Institute - "OBI") of Global Blood Funds sole corporate member. The OBI policy is as follows. As leaders of the states largest biopharmaceutical organization, a 900-plus staff entity, the roles of CEO and other physicians and executives require a rare blend of astute organizational leadership, vision, fiduciary management, advanced medical specialization and expertise in the unique scientific field of transfusion medicine. Executives have responsibility for fifteen operational facilities across three states and ten major markets in the region and the day-to-day provision of a safe and sufficient blood supply to meet the needs of patients in more than 223 facilities served. The compensation of the CEO is determined by the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors comprising community leaders, business executives and physicians with exemplary ethical and fiduciary standards. CEO compensation is based on comparative salary data from similar health care organizations using IRS Form 990s and industry salary surveys. Similarly, compensation for executives reporting to the CEO is proposed by the CEO based on comparable national and local salaries for positions and approved by the Executive Committee. Changes to compensation are reviewed and formally approved annually by the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors. Global Blood Fund's contract executive director is an independent contractor. His compensation is reviewed and approved by the board. |

| COMPENSATION REVIEW | Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Lines 15a and 15b The volunteer board members and officers are compensated by a related organization. No part of the related entity compensation is for services rendered to the filing organization. The executive compensation for those individuals is paid by a related organization (Oklahoma Blood Institute - "OBI") of Global Blood Funds sole corporate member. The OBI policy is as follows: As leaders of the states largest biopharmaceutical organization, a 900-plus staff entity, the roles of CEO and other physicians and executives require a rare blend of astute organizational leadership, vision, fiduciary management, advanced medical specialization and expertise in the unique scientific field of transfusion medicine. Executives have responsibility for fifteen operational facilities across three states and ten major markets in the region and the day-to-day provision of a safe and sufficient blood supply to meet the needs of patients in more than 223 facilities served. The compensation of the CEO is determined by the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors comprising community leaders, business executives and physicians with exemplary ethical and fiduciary standards. CEO compensation is based on comparative salary data from similar health care organizations using IRS Form 990s and industry salary surveys. Similarly, compensation for executives reporting to the CEO is proposed by the CEO based on comparable national and local salaries for positions and approved by the Executive Committee. Changes to compensation are reviewed and formally approved annually by the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors. Global Blood Fund's contract executive director is an independent contractor. His compensation is reviewed and approved by the board. |
