PART X, LINE 2 ASC 740 FOOTNOTE	The Academy is generally exempt from federal and state income taxes under the provisions of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, however, the net income from certain activities of the Academy may be subject to income tax as unrelated business income. During 2017 and 2016, the provision for income taxes was $214 and $6,740, respectively, which has been recorded in miscellaneous expense on the consolidated statement of activities. The organization must recognize the tax benefit with tax positions taken for tax return purposes when it is more-likely-than-not the position will be sustained. The organization does not believe there are any material uncertain tax positions and, accordingly, it did not recognize any liability for unrecognized tax benefits. For the years ended December 31, 2017 and 2016, there were no interest or penalties recorded or included in the consolidated financial statements.

Return Reference	Explanation
PART VI, SECTION B, LINE 12 B & C	Disclosure must be made in writing through the use of an official disclosure form or via an online management system. The completed forms must be returned prior to the commencement of an office term, and these forms must be updated whenever circumstances require or once per calendar year, whichever is sooner. All information disclosed is reviewed to identify conflicts of interest and to guide the resolution of those conflicts. For leaders, reviews will be completed by an appropriate AAAAI committee or executive body. For faculty, reviews will be completed by the continuing medical education committee or the annual meeting program committee, depending on the activity in which the faculty member will potentially be involved. For authors, reviews will be completed by the practice diagnostics and therapeutic committee. In all cases, an individual's disclosure will be reviewed in the context of the activity in which s/he will potentially be participating. If a conflict of interest is identified, the reviewers will be asked to identify an appropriate mechanism for resolving the conflict. This could potentially include asking the individual to alter the relationship which creates the conflict, or removing the individual from involvement in the activity. The results of each review will be communicated to the individual and the organization planning the activity to facilitate the resolution of the conflict. The individual will be expected to disclose to the appropriate audience any relationships that were found to be, or to present the potential for, conflict of interest by the reviewer.
