Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	The organization requires all Board members to disclose any known or potential conflicts of interest at the time of appointment to the Board using a pre-defined Conflict of Interest Disclosure and Acknowledgement form. These forms are reviewed by the CEO and by the Executive Committee for accuracy, completeness and to identify actual or potential conflicts of interest. Board members possessing a conflict of interest are prohibited from participation in deliberations, actions and votes on matters associated directly or indirectly to those conflicts. Board members are further required to update their Conflict of Interest forms annually through the duration of their current and any subsequent terms.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	For 2017, the Executive Committee is composed entirely of people that have no conflict of interest. The Committee is responsible for conducting the performance review and salary adjustment of the President/Chief Executive Officer. The performance review process includes a compensation survey of comparable organizations, research for published salary benchmarks, and discussion among the Committee. The review and recommendation is documented and submitted to the Board of Directors. The Board then discusses the recommendation and decides on the compensation annually. The Board decisions are documented and approved by the Chair of the Board of Directors. The last compensation review for the Chief Executive Officer was in 2017. Salary for the head financial position in the organization is determined by the CEO and is based on, among other factors, current salary statistics for the same position within geographically local and comparably sized nonprofit organizations, the current financial health of the organization and with the assistance and input from the Board, local peer organizations and other professional sources. The most recent compensation review and adjustment took place December 31, 2012.
