Name: The Dwelling Place

Form 990 (2017)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Transitional Housing - The Dwelling Place has six homes where residents may stay 12 to 18 months to heal and learn skills necessary for living empowered, successful lives free from abuse. Our locations are located in residential neighborhoods and are kept confidential for the safety of our women and children, making it very difficult for abusers to find their victims. Currently our houses serve multiple purposes. Safe shelter for the women and children we serve, program staff offices, and women and children's group program space. We can house up to 33 individuals at one time. The homes are very nice, clean, furnished, and have security systems. Statistics for 2017: 25 women and their 37 children were served (19 of the women were mothers). Of the 62 people served, 53% were African American, 27% Caucasian, 8% African, 5% South East Asian, 3% Latino/African American, 3% African/Native American. Children ranged in age from new born to 17 years, 15 boys and 22 girls, 100% below the poverty line and considered homeless by the state of Minnesota.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Domestic Abuse Program and Support Services - Our trauma-informed care consists of two primary healing principles safety and empowerment We have 20 years of experience in providing services to victims of domestic abuse We combine best practices with a strong Christian environment We were founded on the understanding that in order to help victims of domestic abuse heal from their emotional wounds, our programs must be Christ-centered and comprehensive addressing the whole person The Dwelling Place provides a comprehensive domestic abuse program and support services for residents, including intensive case management, support groups, education on domestic abuse, classes on budgeting and managing finances, parenting skills, shopping for affordable groceries and cooking nutritious meals on a limited budget, Bible Study and Christian spiritual support Collaborative partnerships also exist to provide resources for employment counseling, therapy and affordable housing

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Children's Programming - With so many single mothers in our programs, The Dwelling Place also provides programming for their children. All the children in our homes receive ongoing case management, mental and behavioral health services, individual trauma therapy, and age-appropriate educational services to help them heal. All the mothers in our program also receive personalized Parenting Case Management and education to help them meet their children's individual needs and find the best services available for their family. With our Children's Program, we envision eliminating the generational cycle of abuse through education and by showing children they are loved and have value. The goal is to promote healing from trauma and opportunities for growth in social, emotional, and cognitive skills. Children in our program experience safety and freedom from fear, strengthen their relationship with their mom, express and identify emotions in healthy ways, and learn dynamics of healthy relationships.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	The Organization is exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and Minnesota Statute 290.05. Because the Organization is a public charity, contributions to it may be deductible for tax purposes. Management believes that it is not reasonably possible for any tax position benefits to increase or decrease significantly over the next 12 months. As of December 31, 2017, there were no income tax related accrued interest or penalties recognized in either the statement of financial position or the statement of activities. The Organization files informational returns in the U.S. federal jurisdiction, and in the Minnesota state jurisdiction. U.S. federal returns and Minnesota returns for the prior 3 fiscal years remain open for examination. No returns are currently under examination in any tax jurisdiction.
