The Global Birthing Home Foundation (GBHF) operates in Haiti as a non-governmental organization, under the auspices of the Episcopal Diocese of Haiti. Maison de Naissance ("Home of Birth") is a modern, culturally appropriate maternal center in Torbeck, Haiti, and is sponsored by GBHF, which shares local oversight of the birth center's operations and is responsible for fundraising. We support indigenous management, with local staffing, and programs for professional development. We encourage innovative and efficient use of technology, including electronic medical records, telemedicine through IM and internet, and specially designed assessment tools. We promote community empowerment, moving toward self-sufficiency by 2024, including population surveys, community health education, house calls, collaboration with community and government bodies, partnerships with other mission related agencies, and economic development programs to improve our families' incomes and food security.
