Part III, Line 2: The organization undertook significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior

Form 990 to advertise and promote the good and general welfare by advocating various policies.

Part VI, Line 11b This document was circulated to the organization's directors for review and approval prior to submission.

Part VI, Line 19: The organization made all required public filings and made non-confidential information available upon request.

Part XII, Line 1: This organization utilizes the modified cash basis as its accounting method. The primary reason to use this accounting basis is to use the accrual basis for long-term assets and cash basis for its short-term assets and expenses. The organization does not currently hold any long-term assets which might accrue any expenses, thus, the organization essentially is acting on a cash basis.
