Form 990 (2017)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Our six-day Resiliency and Combat Trauma Reintegration program utilizes a unique non-clinical methodology that is successful in equipping Warriors to face and recover from the rigors associated with combat and military service such as PTSD. The program teaches men how to fight through challenges that stifle personal success through intensive peer-based instruction in a confidential and open environment. The camaraderie participants experience in the various recreational activities triggers growth and recovery within the men. By discovering the truth about discipline, brotherhood, legacy, courage, honor, faith and family, men develop authentic character and learn to live a life of leadership. Those who complete this program will have the skills and accountability to calibrate their lives to be the Warriors and leaders they were born to be, in order to not only overcome their own challenges, but to lead others to do the same.
