Return Reference	Explanation
Pt X, Line 2	The Foundation is exempt from federal and state income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and therefore has made no provision for income taxes in the accompanying financial statements. The Foundation has analyzed tax positions taken for filing with the Internal Revenue Service and the state jurisdiction of North Carolina and Georgia where it operates. The Foundation believes that income tax filing positions will be sustained upon examination and does not anticipate any adjustments that would result in a material adverse effect on the Foundation's financial condition, results of operations or cash flows. Accordingly, the Foundation has not recorded any reserves, or related accruals for interest and penalties for uncertain income tax positions at December 31, 2017.

Return Reference	Explanation
Pt I Line 2	The Organization does not monitor the use of funds granted to organizations in the United States since it grants funds to organizations only if those organizations qualify as exempt from federal income tax under code section 501(c)(3) and therefore are bound to use such funds only for religious, charitable, educational, or other purposes described in that code section. In 2017, one organization received a grant that was not a 501(c)(3), however that organization is affiliated with a 501(c)(3). Site visits and/or reports from the organization ensured that the grants were used for their intended purposes. Grants to individuals are evaluated and monitored by an independent committee appointed by the Board of Directors. Payments to individuals are made primarily through third party agencies.
