In this re-submitted filing, in order to provide a reasonable explanation for the fact that the initial filing received by the IRS on November 19, 2018, I want to inform you that our organization is in our early stages of development. We do not have a sophisticated or complicated budget. In 2018, Negative Space Gallery hired a bookkeeper to assist with keeping a ledger of exepnses and income and to submit our 990. Our bookkeeper submitted the 2016 filing but never provided us a copy. She was not organized to be able to file the 2017 on a timely basis so we sought an extension and then volunteers assisted in completing the submitted 2017 990. However, it was not submitted correctly as stated. In your letter dated December 31, we neglected to submit an additional schedule B (now submitted). We are in the process of hiring a properly qualified and experienced tax accountant to assist us going forward
