01. General explanation attachment

Pathway Learning Center is a non-profit 501c3 organization whose mission is to provide social services to underserve Asian community in the area of professional and program development, supporting educators with closing achievement gap, works to support technology integration and job training, youth development, and charity events. There are currently five staff that works in the organization. Of the five staff, only one person, the Director is the only full time paid position, the rest are volunteers. As per why the information was not forward along with the tax return in the first place was because we were not aware that we need to submit an explanation of the organization's mission and activities as part of record. This is also our first time filing with the IRS.
