Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 2	Grants are made to other 501(c)(3) organizations with an interest in criminal justice issues. The organizations are selected by the Board based on their experience and history of dealing with these issues and their willingness ability to work cooperatively with organizations with differing ideological perspectives towards a common goal. Grants to 501(c)(4) organizations are specific purpose grants limited to the charitable and educational activities of the organization. Grant recipients will be required to provide regular updates to the Organization about the use of funds, and provide the Organization with a year-end report on how the funds were used and a financial report.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part III, Line 1 Description of Organization Mission	The Coalition for Public Safety, together with its partners, is the largest national effort working to make our criminal justice system smarter, fairer and more cost effective at the federal, state and local level. In an unprecedented way, the Coalition brings together the nation's most prominent conservative and progressive organizations to pursue an aggressive criminal justice reform effort. The Coalition and its partners reach tens of millions of Americans seeking commonsense reforms, and will work to build consensus around comprehensive efforts that are designed to address some of the most pressing issues facing the nation's criminal justice system. The Coalition is working across the political spectrum to reduce our jail and prison populations and associated costs, end the systemic problems of overcriminalization and overincarceration -- particularly of low-income communities and communities of color, ensure swift and fair outcomes for both the accused and the victim, and make communities safe by reducing recidivism and breaking down barriers faced by those returning home after detention or incarceration. Coalition Goals - Reduce the footprint of jails and prisons by tackling over-criminalization and over incarceration - Reinvest cost savings in true public safety measures - Address justice disparities in low-income communities and communities of color - Break down barriers to re-entry for returning citizens - Emphasize effective rehabilitation and treatment - Ensure prompt and fair outcomes for both the accused and victim of crimes

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a Education (continued)	CPS also partnered with other nonprofit organizations to host summits and forums to reach diverse audiences and share information on key criminal justice issues, such as sponsoring Faith and Freedom Coalition's Road to Majority Conference and Young Americans for Liberty's annual YALCON conference. CPS also disseminated criminal justice information through media interviews, informational meetings with high-level media figures and influencers, and employing rapid response tactics for relevant criminal justice events. By providing reporters with access to fact sheets, research documents, and Coalition members and staff, the organization increased criminal justice coverage in print and digital formats. Through social media platforms, the organization highlighted partner organizations working on criminal justice issues and directed followers to relevant breaking news.
