Name: Mental Health America of the Heartland

Form 990 (2017)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Heartland Housing Initiative increases access to permanent, safe, decent and affordable housing by developing an array of housing and support service options for individuals and families with mental illness or who are otherwise disabled. Services include owning and managing housing units, processing rental subsidies, community and coalition building.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Advocacy and recovery program services are delivered via telephone, in the association's offices, at community mental health centers, and in various other places. Activities range from offering individuals encouragement, support, and referral assistance to intervention and mediation. Advocacy requests frequently concern housing, treatment, food or employment assistance.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Community Education (Mental Health Promotion and Child and Youth Mental Health Initiative) increases public awareness and knowledge of mental illness and its treatment, reduces related stigma and promotes effective treatment and recovery strategies. The program offers teen suicide prevention sessions, affordable lecture series and seminars for consumers and family members, continuing education credits for professionals, information and referral services, a self help and support group directory, and a resource lending library.
