Vocational Training "MOKA TECH": A program within our organization formed in October of 2013 to provide basic labor job training. We have worked towards partnering with other for profit businesses to provide higher skilled jobs and training. We have faced many challenges to build this program without proper funding. We started the program on previous net income with the desire to apply for grants to get funding. Funding was not granted to our organization. The Board of the Directors will be looking whether we will continue the program or end it due to lack of funding opportunities and proper finances.
