Form 990 (2017)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

The ministry operates 6 retail thrift stores to provide good salable merchandise to those in need. A benevolence/volunteer exchange program is offered to provide goods to individuals who cannot pay in exchange for volunteer time. The thrift stores provide volunteer opportunities to those who need to fulfill probation, community service, and food stamp requirements. The organization contracted with three statewide nonprofit organizations to offer job opportunities to contracted work volunteers. These volunteers are preparing and training to re-enter the work place to obtain financial independence.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

The organization provides ministry outreach by acting as a referral source to individuals looking for Christian based resources within the State of Delaware and throughout the U S , provides biblically based counseling to those in need, and financially supports various national and international nonprofit ministries that specifically meet the needs of children and provide recovery based intervention and housing to those with addictions
