PUBLICATIONS AND MEDIA To promote UPF's vision for world peace, the Communications Department runs a website (upf.org) that reports on activities of the UPF chapters worldwide. To supplement this website, UPF Today, a quarterly magazine, is published in several languages. UPF also publishes Dialogue and Alliance, a bi-annual journal focused on interfaith dialogue. Books on good governance, character education and interfaith dialogue have also been published and made available to the public, along with a wide variety of reports and brochures related to UPF activities. UPF also produces and maintains an extensive online video library on youtube and vimeo, a collection of educational PowerPoint presentations on slideshare, and a comprehensive character education curriculum in both English and Spanish on wikispaces.

| Part I, Line 2   | We select organizations to support based on their proposals to our Board. We research their organization's activities, legal and tax-exempt status within their country, and reputation, before approving grants. After the grant has been given, we require that the supported organization give us full reporting on how the funds have been spent, including photographs of activities. We also require that they send copies of receipts for the major expenses they have paid with our grants. |
