The Foundation does not engage in extensive fundraising activities, but it has a continuing program to remind the affiliate church's members and other interested parties of the opportunities to assist students with financial need and community organizations through financial contributions. Donations to the Foundation are typically in the range of $50 to $500, with the occasional gift or bequest of $10,000 or more. The fluctuating levels of contributions and the relatively large portion of restricted principal funds means that investment income usually represents a substantial portion of the funds available for grants and loans. Investment income and contributions are subject to considerable fluctuations from year to year depending on the economic climate and securities markets as well as the generosity of donors. Consequently, calculated "public support" may often be less than 33.3% of total support.

The Grants Committee of the Foundation reviews all grant applications using established criteria most recently updated in 2012. Grants to non-profit organizations are awarded based on requests for specific projects that support underserved and low-income populations in local communities. Grants to individuals are awarded base upon criteria which include review of financial need with preference given to applicants with ties to Mount Olivet United Methodist Church in Arlington, Virginia, or the Methodist community. For educational grants checks are made payable to the recipient's accredited educational institution. In recent years, amounts requested in applications have exceeded available funds.
