Form 990 (2017)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Democracy North Carolina works to advance its reform mission through organizing, advocacy, and research. These methods seek to advance both civic engagement and structural reforms, which together can strengthen the ability for people of color, their white allies, and youth to build power and win policies that benefit what the North Carolina Constitution calls the good of the whole. Our organizers bring together volunteers from grassroots, faith, civil-rights, and issue groups to create multi-racial coalitions that are engines for civic participation, leadership training, and policy change. Our research and communications teams pinpoint policy change opportunities, respond to critical challenges, author reports, guide messaging tactics, and evaluate strategic targets for informed citizen action.
