ASC 740 FOOTNOTE	The BBB and the Affiliate are exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(6) and Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, respectively, as amended. However, income from certain activities not directly related to the Bureau's tax-exempt purpose is subject to taxation as unrelated business income. Income tax expense for such unrelated business income totaled $76,294 and $125,912 in 2017 and 2016, respectively. The Bureau annually evaluates all federal and state income tax positions. This process includes an analysis of whether these income tax positions the Bureau takes meet the definition of an uncertain tax position under the Income Taxes Topic of the Financial Accounting Standards Codification. In the normal course of business, the Bureau is subject to examination by the federal and state taxing authorities. In general, the Bureau is no longer subject to tax examinations for tax years ending before December 31, 2014.

part i, question 2	Each year the Center for Character Ethics (Foundation) grants scholarships to students who apply and are selected for the scholarship. The number of students granted scholarships each year is dependent on the amount of money raised to support the scholarships and the number of candidates. Applicants may come from students applying to traditional four year universities or planning to attend a trade college. Criteria are established each year which require the applicants to submit information supporting how they represent the characteristics that make up the Mission and Vision of the Foundation. Applicant submissions may include essays, referrals, or other forms of support literature. A panel of judges is selected each year to review applicant material and make determination on scholarship winners based on a scoring criteria used to evaluate all applicants equitably across the Foundations Mission and Vision. Winners are selected and participate in a gala event to celebrate their accomplishment. The Foundation records and maintains records each year of applicants, scholarship winners, amounts granted, sponsors, sponsor donation levels, and any other information/material deemed pertinent to administration of the scholarship awards. The Center for Character Ethics does not discriminate on the basis of race, creed, color, ethnicity, national origin, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender expression, age, physical or mental ability, veteran status, military obligations, or marital status.
