Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
PART X, LINE 2	Under Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") 740, "income taxes," an organization must recognize the tax benefit associated with tax positions taken for tax return purposes when it is more likely than not that the position will be sustained upon examination by a taxing authority. The implementation of ASC 740 had no impact on the Spencer Educational Foundation, Inc.'s financial statements. The organization does not believe it has taken any material uncertain tax positions and, accordingly, it has not recorded any liability for unrecognized tax benefits. The organization has filed for and received income tax exemptions in the jurisdictions where it is required to do so. Additionally, the organization has filed IRS Form 990 information returns, as required, and all other applicable returns in jurisdictions where so required. For the year ended December 31, 2017, there were no interest or penalties recorded or included in the statement of activities. The organization is subject to routine audits by a taxing authority. As of December 31, 2017, there were no examinations being performed. Management believes it is no longer subject to income tax examination for the years prior to 2014.

Return Reference	Explanation
PART I, LINE 2	The Foundation distributes funds through four programs: Scholarships, Internship grants, Risk Manager in Residence Program Grants and General Grants. Each program has a unique application, which is reviewed and evaluated by a committee. The criteria for each program can be found on the Foundations website (www.spencered.org). For scholarships, the award check is made out jointly to the recipient and the university. The funds are to be applied by the Universitys Bursar first to tuition, books, and risk management/insurance curriculum-related expenses, second, the funds are to be applied to room and board expenses. For internship grants, the award check is made out to the applicants organization. Applicants are required to share who they hired (resume and transcript) and they need to complete a final report. For risk manager in residence grants, the award check is made out to the applying university. The applicant is required to complete a final report (including final budget) and reimburse the risk manager for expenses. For general grants, the award check is made out to the applicants organization. Applicants are required to complete a final report (including final budget).
