Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule D, Part IV, Line 2b	ECU maintains escrow accounts on the loans in the mortgage portfolio for payment of property taxes and homeowner's insurance. The accounts are treated as other deposit accounts and earn interest at the regular share account rate as long as the escrow balance is positive. Amounts are deposited monthly and payments are made as necessary during the year. Escrows are "trued" once a year to prevent excess or correct short-falls.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15	Eastman Credit Union annually participates in executive compensation surveys of reputable compensation consultants by providing current base and total compensation information of the ECU officers. The consulting groups focus on comparative compensation information within the Credit Union industry. As a result of participation, ECU receives data compilation reports and analyses from the studies conducted by these compensation experts. Ranking and comparative information for each relevant position is provided in both studies. ECU studies and utilizes peer group information relative to ECU's asset size as benchmark data. Eastman Credit Union works with consultants from each respective consulting firm to obtain special data cuts, clarifying information, and advice regarding matching of ECU positions to benchmark jobs, industry average increase in executive compensation, and other information related to executive base and total compensation factors. The Vice President of Human Resources provides a recap of compensation study information in a presentation format during a meeting of the Compensation Committee (subcommittee of the Board of Directors, chaired by the Board Chair). The compensation committee reviews the data and discusses and presents questions related to the information provided. When necessary, the VP of Human Resources will follow up with compensation consultants for additional information to be presented for discussion and consideration. The Compensation Committee approves an average salary increase for the CEO's direct reports and authorizes the CEO to award individual salary increases accordingly. Final awards are documented and signed by both the CEO and the chair of the Compensation Committee. This document is submitted to payroll via the VP of Human Resources. The Compensation Committee meets in executive session to further consider compensation data for the CEO. Final award is documented and signed as approved by the chair of the Compensation Committee. This document is submitted to payroll via the VP of Human Resources. Original documents are maintained on file in the Human Resources Department.
