990 Schedule A, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part IV, Section A, Line 3b	Annually, Jaycees International Foundation (Jaycees) along with its supporting organization, Junior Chamber International (JCI) participate in an external audit. At this time, the amount of public support is reviewed by management and the board. After the audit is completed, the federal Forms 990 are prepared for each entity by an external accountant. Once the Forms 990 are complete, copies of the Forms are forwarded to each U.S. board member, and the board members are asked to review the returns individually. At this time, the board members individually review the support received for the year as well.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part IV, Section A, Line 3c	Jaycees works in conjunction with JCI to ensure that support provided to JCI is used exclusively for charitable purposes. Different funds are maintained to account for the various exempt activities. Separate accounting records and budgets are used to ensure that the support is spent exclusively for charitable purposes. Annually, JCI holds its "World Congress" conference event where all of the members of JCI are invited. At this conference, annual budgets and targets are reviewed in conjunction with the goals and missions of the organization. Also, regional senate conferences are held at various times throughout the year to discuss these same topics. These senate conferences allow for continual review of the support received and expenses incurred.
