The Foundation's investment assets are managed by a third party investment advisor. Years ago the investment advisor was selected by the past University President and past CFO as well as the other board members of the Foundation. Current asset allocations, investment returns and expenses are reviewed by the past and current University Presidents and current CFO along with other board members during board meetings. The current University President & CFO and the past University President, who still resides on the Board, along with other board members make any inquiries until satisfied and provide feedback to the advisor.

Foundation ranch land used by the University is discussed and the benefits received by University are presented by the Professors in the Biology Sciences department of the University and the participating students. Additionally, Foundation ranch land conservation, agricultural, wildlife or other activities are discussed.

In regard to significant expenses such as financial support to the University, a methodology was established that is still used today.
