operations of the Organization, primarily for those individuals whose financial resources are less than the financial resources of 50% of the financial resources of those in the related community.

Part X, Line 2:

Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America provide accounting and disclosure guidance about positions taken by an entity in its tax returns that might be uncertain. Touro believes that it has appropriate support for any tax positions taken, and management has determined that there are no uncertain tax positions that are material to the financial statements.

Penalties and interest assessed by income taxing authorities, if any, would be included in income tax expense.
