Participation point records are maintained for all youth bowlers that are registered in the program. If they remain in the program until they graduate from high school or were scheduled to graduate, the points convert into a scholarship that they may use for an accredited form of higher education. The conversion rate is one point per dollar. To use the scholarship, they must enroll within 18 months of scheduled graduation date or apply for an extension. Any unused scholarships are returned to the state scholarship fund to award to future participants.
