Name: Harris County Domestic Violence
Coordinating Council

Form 990 (2017)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Harris County Domestic Violence Coordinating Council addresses the need to centralize services and systems, improve communications across disciplines, and develop written formal protocols that seek to improve access to services and safety for victims, hold perpetrators accountable, and reduce and prevent future incidents of violence. The Council works to implement positive solutions for reducing barriers to access and increasing victims safety in the 5 largest systems, law enforcement, domestic violence service providers, the criminal justice system, medical service providers, and Adult and Child Protective Services. The work of the Council relies completely on the premise of increasing collaborations with the agencies, organizations, and systems that work in the field of domestic violence. The Council is committed to create pathways to services that are client centered and reduce the barriers victims have to accessing services. The overall goal is to improve systemic responses that meet the clients when, where, and how the clients need to be met. The Council seeks to employ staff and consultants who bring evidence based, research informed, and client centered opportunities to the community for consideration and implementation.
