ExplanationTxt:

During 2017, the Georgia Micro Enterprise Network (GMEN) has been very active in building the capacity of micro enterprise development organizations across the state of Georgia and the Southeast. With new funding from the WK Kellogg Foundation, GMEN has been an active participant in national business development activities and has helped to guide and define the development of the micro enterprise industry across five states in the Southeast -- Georgia, South Carolina, Alabama, Louisiana and Mississippi. As an SBA PRIME recipient, GMEN provided training and technical assistance to an additional 37 Department of Community Service (DCS) criminal justice partners and faith based organizations across the state. GMEN has also greatly expanded its outreach activities to rural communities through a partnership with USDA grant funding through the National Resource Conservation Service that resulted in connections with 30 new business development organizations located in rural Georgia.
