MLR worked with numerous landowners in 2017 to permanently protect their private lands for continued agricultural production, open space, and natural habitat. Sixteen of these landowners donated or sold conservation easements to MLR that protected over 48,230 acres, including additional acreage in the Greater Yellowstone and Northern Continental Divide ecosystems bordering Yellowstone and Glacier national parks. Nearly 53 miles of river/stream frontage on some of Montana's blue ribbon trout fisheries were protected in perpetuity. Over 69% of the easements completed in 2017 were adjacent to or within 5 miles of properties already protected by conservation easements. MLR has protected a total of 1,038,964 acres of agricultural/recreational lands in Montana. That acreage includes 172,876 acres of crop/hay/pasture lands, 868,088 acres of forest/range lands, 1,728 miles of river/stream frontage, 552,210 acres of prime elk habitat, and 42,362 acres of wetlands.

MLR stewardship staff (consisting of the Lands Manager, a full-time Land Steward, 16 seasonal Land Stewards, and 1 part-time digital scanner) monitors each and every property on which MLR holds a conservation easement. This monitoring includes a visit to the subject property and discussions with the landowners/managers. The stewardship staff also works with existing easement holders to supply natural resource information and contacts for the landowner to improve their land holdings for conservation purposes. Stewardship staff also works with legal counsel in regard to any potential issues that arise regarding interpretation or enforcement of conservation easements held by MLR. MLR is in the process of digitizing all of the easement project files for the 854 easements that have been completed and are of record, scanning of this documentation will enhance staff's ability to work more efficiently with easement holders across the state. See Schedule O for a list of stewardship/monitoring expenditures.

MLR granted $60,505 to the Montana Land Reliance Foundation, Inc., to be invested into the Land Protection Fund to cover stewardship and monitoring expenditures.

For these outreach activities, MLR publishes various educational brochures and an annual report to provide information and enhance the transparency of its public interest activities. Additionally, staff participate with numerous conservation groups to educate the general public about the land trust community's conservation efforts. PART II, Line 3 (conservation easement modifications): Of the total 854 conservation easements held by MLR at the end of 2017, seven (7) easement documents were modified (less than 1%). The purposes of the two (2) corrections; two (2) amendments; one (1) consolidation/easement on additional lands, and two (2) grant deeds of conservation easement on additional lands and ratification of existing easements were to correct inadvertent drafting errors or omissions that occurred when easements were originally drafted, to further restrict property subject to an easement, to eliminate ambiguities in easement terms that could have led to enforcement challenges by updating outdated conservation easement language, and to add additional lands to easement properties. All seven of the easement modifications also secured the landowner's ratification of the terms and conditions of the conservation values and purposes of the original easements. As an accredited land trust, MLR followed rigorous conservation easement amendment policies to ensure perpetual protection of the conservation values and to avoid conferral of prohibited private benefit and inurement, all in accordance with national standards and practices as recommended by the Land Trust Alliance.

1) Bench Ranch, LLC - this easement was originally recorded on September 14, 1987, in Book 97 of Deeds, Pages 679-707, in the public records of Stillwater County, Montana. This easement protects 1,039 acres in the West Rosebud Valley and is adjacent to and in the vicinity of numerous other properties that are under perpetual conservation easements. The easement was corrected by that certain Correction of Deed of Conservation Easement (Legal Description) recorded December 21, 2017, as Document #371041 Easements, public records of Stillwater County, MT. The correction was necessary to correct an error in the original legal description that was found when a conservation easement was granted by an adjacent neighbor.

2) Jack Creek Preserve Foundation -- This Second Restatement of Deed of Conservation Easement and Grant Deed of Conservation Easement on Additional Lands, was originally recorded in the public records of Madison County, Montana, on November 12, 2015, as Document #164191 Records. The Second Restatement was corrected by that certain Correction to Second Restatement of Deed of Conservation Easement and Grant Deed of Conservation Easement on Additional Lands recorded on June 9, 2017, as Document #172885 Records, in the public records of Madison County, Montana. The correction was necessary to acknowledge and correct an inadvertent drafting error referencing two existing primitive cabins, when in fact there are three primitive cabins, and to correct an error regarding the development area, which was mistakenly located in an area of the property that contained significant wetlands such that a 5-acre building envelope could not be located which was compatible with the conservation values. The Jack Creek Preserve consists of 4,343 acres in the Madison Valley, where there are over 113,750 acres under protection by perpetual conservation easements held by MLR.

3) Muddy Creek Ranch, LLC -- This property consists of approximately 815 acres and is located within the Shields Valley, an area of Montana under ever increasing development pressure. The original Deed of Conservation Easement was recorded on December 22, 2000, as Document #287276, in Roll 153, pages 1201-1223, as corrected by that certain Correction to Deed of Conservation Easement recorded on February 18, 2003, as Document #304943, in Roll 184, pages 176-178, in the public records of Park County, Montana. Development and subdivision on the property was further restated, consolidated, and clustered via a Restatement and Amendment of Deed of Conservation Easement that was recorded on March 7, 2017, as Document #396587, in the public records of Park County, Montana.

Part IV Supplemental Information. Provide the information required in Part I, line 2; Part III, column (b); and any other additional information.

The Montana Land Reliance Foundation, Inc., was established in 2010 to provide services to The Montana Land Reliance (MLR), to provide financial assistance to MLR, and to hold assets in support of MLR. Two members of MLR's Board of Directors serve on the Board of the Montana Land Reliance Foundation to provide oversight of the use of funds provided to the Foundation by MLR. There are three other members of the Foundation's Board that are not members of the MLR Board and provide further oversight of the funds. MLR monies granted to the Foundation are invested to provide income that is then granted to MLR to assist in the completion of land projects, to assist with the financial burden of monitoring existing conservation easements, to assist MLR with costs associated with its education and outreach program to landowners, professionals, and other conservation organizations, and to assist MLR with its general operating expenditures. In 2017, MLR granted $60,505 to be invested into the Land Protection Fund (income from which is used to assist MLR with conservation easement project costs and monitoring/stewardship costs), $40,135 to be invested in the Education and Outreach Fund (income from which is used to assist MLR with education and outreach costs); and $19,029 to be invested in the Conservation Fund (an endowment fund to assist MLR in its land protection and education activities).

PART VI, Section B, line 11a: MLR's annual Form 990 is drafted by staff, reviewed by legal counsel, and then distributed to MLR's Board of Directors for review, comment, and approval. The draft Form 990 is also reviewed in detail by the independent auditors during MLR's annual audit process. Should the drafting of the Form 990 be delayed, leaving insufficient time for the full Board's review, the MLR Financial Committee is authorized to review and approve the submittal.

PART VI, Section B, line 12c: MLR's conflict of interest policy covers all employees, Board members, members of the Council of Trustees, major donors, and individuals such as independent contractors or former employees who might have access to inside information (conflicted parties) and references conflicted parties' spouses, domestic partners, parents, grandparents, children, grandchildren, siblings, or business entities (related parties). A conflicted party must disclose the material facts of the transaction and his/her interest to the full Board/staff prior to any discussion, and shall not vote on or be present for the discussion of an issue. Potential conflicts of interest are documented in Board minutes and discussed with legal counsel if necessary. In accordance with Montana law, a transaction with a conflicted party may only be authorized, approved, or ratified if the transaction received the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors who have no direct or indirect interest in the transaction. Each Director and employee signs a statement which affirms he/she has received, read, understands, and agrees to comply in all respects with MLR's conflict of interest policy.

PART VI, Section B, lines 15a and 15b: The salaries of all MLR employees are determined by the Board of Directors, after consideration of any recommendations received from the Management Team and the Board's Compensation and Evaluation Committee and are based upon their review of salary/benefit surveys conducted on other conservation organizations across the country. These surveys are conducted annually by the Land Trust Alliance and by TREC (a nationally known survey organization). MLR staff may also be given cost-of-living increases that take into consideration the Social Security Administration's cost-of-living calculations. The Compensation and Evaluation Committee has the authority to revise proposed salary packages if they determine that is necessary/warranted. The annual salary packages (along with recommendations from the Compensation and Evaluation Committee) are presented to and discussed with the full Board of Directors for final approval on an annual basis.

PART IX, Line 24 (Other expenses)

Other expenses listed on line 24 include equipment expenses ($12,201) that relate to vehicle and other equipment maintenance, repairs, etc., uncollectible accounts ($11,475) are expenditures related to old project accounts where the easements were not completed and the information collected/obtained is no longer applicable (landowners are billed for these costs, but some do not pay because the conservation easement did not get completed) and cancelled fundraising trips through outfitters (participants cancelled too late for refund, etc.), conservation projects ($1,365) related to road right-of-way extinguishment payments that were used to fund conservation projects, and conservation easement acquisitions ($2,635,615) were the purchase amounts of the three conservation easements that were purchased in 2017 (see detail above in response to Part III, Line 4a)

4) Branger Ranch LP This 2,278-acre ranch is located along East Rosebud Creek in Carbon County, Montana. The original Deed of Conservation Easement was recorded on October 17, 2003, as Instrument File #309736, records of Carbon County, MT, a Correction was recorded November 4, 2003, as Instrument File #310078, a Second Correction to Deed of Conservation Easement, was recorded on February 2, 2004, as Instrument File #311211, records of Carbon County, MT. Both corrections were completed to address discrepancies in the legal description. An Amendment was recorded on June 25, 2004 as Instrument File #313214, records of Carbon County, MT that reduced the allowed residential rights to four, along with the allowed transfers to four (originally there were five new residences and five transfers permitted). In 2016 it came to the landowners' and MLR's attention that the true location of a boundary line included a barn and agricultural development area that was used by a neighbor (these areas were not intended to be included in the easement). The neighbor recently built a shop building near the barn that was in violation of the easement terms. A settlement in lieu of litigation was worked out between the landowners, MLR, and the neighbor to settle the violation and to clarify the respective rights and obligations of each party. A ratification and amendment of the easement was negotiated in a way that will result in new protection of an important segment of the East Rosebud Creek riparian area, and that will limit and cluster development of lands adjacent to the easement property, with no net loss of conservation value to the public. The Ratification and Amendment of Deed of Conservation Easement was recorded on June 5, 2017, as Instrument File # 370012, in the public records of Carbon County, MT.

5) D & A Ranches, Inc. This 2,318-acre property lies in the Boulder River Valley of Sweet Grass County, MT, and was originally protected by two prior Deeds of Conservation Easement (one recorded on December 5, 1991, in Book 68 of Deeds, on page 522, as Document #119367, and the 2nd recorded on February 18, 2003, in Book 80 of Deeds, on page 487, Document #136270, records of Sweet Grass County, MT). The parties to the agreements acknowledged and agreed that certain terms incorporated into the two prior easement documents contained some ambiguities and terms that were not consistent with the parties' mutual intentions, and since completing the two original easements, the landowner has been able to obtain a small (75-acre) tract that overlooks the Boulder River, which the parties agreed to incorporate into the lands under easement. The parties consolidated, reaffirmed, restated, and strengthened the two prior easements with the grant of a Consolidation and Restatement of Deeds of Conservation Easement and Grant Deed of Conservation Easement on Additional Lands that was recorded on August 31, 2017, in Book 91 Deeds, on page 997, as Document #156279.

6) Micks Ranches, LLC. This 4,716-acre property was originally protected by a Deed of Conservation Easement that was recorded on December 31, 2008, in Book D, on pages 8248-8274 of Deeds, records of Golden Valley County, Montana, as corrected by that certain Correction to Deed of Conservation Easement, recorded April 23, 2009, in Book D on pages 8324-8328 of Deeds, records of Golden Valley County, Montana. Since the original easement was completed, the landowner has purchased additional acreage that is adjacent to the easement property (consisting of approximately 424 acres) that he wishes to include in the easement. The Grant Deed of Conservation Easement on Additional Lands and Ratification of Deed of Conservation Easement document to incorporate the 424 acres into the easement was recorded on December 26, 2017, in Book R Easements, page 427, as Document #83090.

7) Pierce Property. A Grant Deed of Conservation Easement on Additional Lands and Ratification of Deed of Conservation Easement was recorded on December 28, 2017, as Document #2602367, in the public records of Gallatin County, Montana that incorporated an additional 228 acres into an existing easement on the Pierce Property. The Pierce family purchased 228-acres that lies adjacent to their 314-acre property that was protected by a Deed of Conservation Easement recorded on December 24, 2014, as Document #2500350, records of Gallatin County, Montana. The newly purchased lands were incorporated into the existing easement protections by the document recorded on December 28, 2017.

SCHEDULE D, Part II, Line 9:

Conservation easements are recorded by MLR as in-kind donations with a value of $1 each. By a resolution of the Board of Directors, MLR values all conservation easements held at a nominal amount of $1 due to the fact that said easements cannot be sold, transferred, or borrowed against. Expenses incurred in "bargain" purchases of easements and other in-house expenses related to completion of conservation easements are expensed out in the year of the purchase and/or donation. The following is the text of the footnote used in MLR's annual audited financial statements: "MLR has acquired conservation easements from various contributors. Conservation easements represent rights to restrict use of certain properties. By accepting the easement contribution, MLR commits to protecting the easement restrictions in perpetuity. The easements have no market value in the hands of MLR. MLR can assign the easements only to another qualified conservation organization. Accordingly, they are represented in the financial statements at a nominal value of one dollar per easement. Purchased easements are expensed."

SCHEDULE D, Part V, Lines 3 and 4:

The Montana Land Reliance Foundation, Inc., was established to hold assets in support of The Montana Land Reliance (MLR) as a related 509(a)(3) support organization. One of the funds that is currently held by and overseen by the Foundation is the Conservation Fund, which has two subfunds, the "General Conservation Fund" and the "Legacy Fund." The Conservation Fund is an endowment fund.

General Conservation Fund. The General Conservation Fund provides a source of revenue to MLR for outreach to landowners for land conservation projects, and research, public outreach, and education on private land conservation. The present value of any contributions to the Fund is not expended as required by Montana Administrative Rule 42 15 507(6) and any successor provisions. The corpus may not be used. Any grant requests to the Foundation from MLR must be authorized by the Foundation's Board of Directors.

Legacy Fund. The Legacy Fund provides a steady source of revenue to MLR for bridge capital for property acquisitions, for option purchases for all or a portion of a threatened property to be resold to a conservation buyer, or for conservation easement purchases. The corpus of the fund may not be used. Any grant requests to the Foundation from MLR must be authorized by the Foundation's Board of Directors.
