Form 990-EZ, Part III - Organization's Primary Exempt Purpose

Canvas Foundation's mission is to share our hearts with our communities through a focus on schools, families, veterans, and first responders. Our goal is to support and nurture these critical areas in order to make a lasting footprint in our communities. The Foundation will offer scholarships to students to help them further their education and community grants to local schools and non-profit organizations who have demonstrated character, leadership and ethical values. The Foundation will also provide other charitable activities and programs that reflect the interests of the communities we serve. These funds are intended to create long-term relationships between Canvas Foundation and the recipients, who we hope will continue to help us continue to promote our focus on schools, families, veterans, and first responders in our surrounding communities.
