The Conservative Partnership Institute (CPI) began operation in July 2017, as a trusted source of conservative policy views. CPI issues the "Weekly Compass", a newsletter that gathers the most important news and research from around the conservative movement. CPI works with conservative communicators to coordinate and improve messaging on the issues facing Congress. In November 2017, CPI hosted conservative leaders from the House and senior White House officials for a retreat on strategy related to end-of-the-year policy battles. CPI conducted training programs for Congressional offices. CPI worked to assist conservative job seekers to find positions in Washington offices.
