| Pt III, Line 31     | She has become one of our top instructors, especially for students with challenges, because she can empathize with the struggles of coping with a significant disability. She benefited greatly from her years in the program and is now giving back with all her horsemanship and teaching skills. She is a consistent ambassador for the HW programs, speaking to the community and helping recruit students. We are proud to see the life-long impacts the program has had, and to have such enthusiasm for helping it continue long into the future. |
