Flowing Wells Educational Foundation creates a dynamic source of community support for Flowing Wells School District #8 projects and programs. The Foundation opens doors for the District to access funds that would otherwise be unavailable. These funds include donations and matching funds from business and professional communities, donations from clubs, organizations and individuals, and grants from local, state and federal agencies. Monies earned and obtained by the Foundation are used to fund schools and educationally related projects. The Foundation enthusiastically welcomes all persons interested in the welfare of the students and families of the Flowing Wells School District to participate.
