As a cooperative, Lane Electric is owned by our member/owners who exercise their control by electing a total of seven board members by residential district. The seven board members are elected from four board districts to each serve a three-year term

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, Line 7b:

Pursuant to Lane Electric's governing documents certain major decisions, such as sale of the entity, require member approval.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11b:

The Form 990, including its supplemental schedules, is reviewed annually during the board meeting in April.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c:

Any potential conflicts of interest including its nature and effects that may exist, shall be declared in advance by the individual in order to save him or herself any official action involving the conflict. Monitoring and identifying such situations is the responsibility of the individual, the President of the Board, and the Board as a whole. Monitoring and enforcement of compliance with policies as they relate to employees is the responsibility of the Cooperative's General Manager. Annually the Cooperative provides questionnaires to its Board of Directors, officers, key, and highly compensated employees. This provides a means to disclose and obtain detailed information regarding the individual relationships reportable personnel may have with the Cooperative's affiliates giving rise to a potential conflict of interest.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15a and 15b

Compensation for the Cooperative's General Manager is set annually by the Board of Directors. This is discretionary based on performance to the extent it falls within the established range. This range is developed and reviewed every year based on averages and compiled from both industry surveys and information obtained from comparable utilities. Each such review is consistent in its inclusion of the relevant data. Compensation for managers and key employees is conducted in the same fashion, however, the decision is made by the Cooperative's General Manager.
