8 - Pain Capable Unborn Child Protection Act - Priests for Life continues to provide strong educational and lobbying support for the Pain Capable Unborn Child Protection Act, which in 2017 was passed by the U.S. House of Representatives, and continued to advance on the state level. This measure, which protects unborn children who can feel pain (from 20 weeks of development forward), has the support of the President and now needs to be passed by the U.S. Senate.

9 - Unborn Child Protection from Dismemberment Abortion Act - Priests for Life also continues to provide strong educational and lobbying support for the Unborn Child Protection from Dismemberment Abortion Act, which also advanced on the state level in 2017 and will eventually be voted on in the U.S. Congress. This measure protects unborn children from any and all procedures involving dismemberment.

10 - Prayer campaigns - We continue our campaign to mobilize believers to pray each day for an end to abortion. We do this by means of a daily prayer to end abortion, and at special times, by means of seasonal prayers and novenas. The prayer website www.PrayerCampaign.org provides the faithful with specific pro-life prayers related to liturgical seasons, pro-life feasts, and other significant occasions. All these prayers are made available online in English and Spanish, and some of them have printed prayer cards available as well.

11 - Preaching on Abortion from the Lectionary - We continued throughout 2017 making Fr. Frank Pavone's book "Proclaiming the Message of Life," available to dioceses, clergy, and laity everywhere. The book provides an overview about preaching on abortion based on the extensive experience of the Priests For Life team since 1991 and includes the most frequently asked questions and concerns of clergy regarding preaching on this topic. The book then provides notes for homily suggestions based on each set of Sunday readings for the entire three-year Sunday cycle of the lectionary. Various bishops have provided the book to all the priests in their diocese.

12 - National Day of Remembrance for Aborted Children - Priests for Life again sponsored the National Day of Remembrance for Aborted Children on September 9, 2017. Fr. Frank Pavone and Fr. Denis Wilde of our team led the service in Philadelphia, at the gravesite of babies by notorious abortionist Kermit Gosnell, who is now serving a life sentence for having killed babies outside the womb. At some 50 different gravesites throughout the United States, where tens of thousands of aborted children are buried, simultaneous memorial services were held on that day. Leading up to this observance, educational efforts focused people on how these burial places came to be, how the babies were found, and how they were killed in the first place.

13 - Silent No More: New Resource for Healing the Shockwaves of Abortion - Throughout 2017, Priests for Life, through its Silent No More Awareness Campaign (a joint project with Anglicans for Life) continued its campaign called Healing the Shockwaves of Abortion (www.AbortionShockwaves.com). This initiative promotes educational and pastoral activity based on the fact that every abortion impacts multiple groups of people: not only baby and parents, but also grandparents, siblings, friends, abortion providers, pro-life advocates, and our entire society. Each month we focus on a special target group that has been directly impacted by abortion loss, with helpful information, resources, and abortion-recovery programs. Janet Morana, co-founder of Silent No More, released a book at the end of the year called Shockwaves: Abortion's Wider Circle of Victims. This book will advance awareness of the initiative throughout the coming year.

14 - Rachel's Vineyard - The ministry of Rachel's Vineyard continues to be the largest pro-life outreach around the world for healing after abortion. It operates as a ministry of Priests for Life, Inc. Rachel's Vineyard offers retreats for healing, as well as group and individual follow-up. The retreat model is based on solid psychological research of a Iso based on the Word of God and the grace of the sacraments. Rachel's Vineyard has been praised personally by Pope Francis and enjoys the endorsement of bishops around the world.

15 - Youth Outreach - Our Youth Outreach leader traveled the nation and the world mobilizing youth to stand up for the unborn and providing them cutting edge resources to do so. We continued to lead the way in utilizing social media to reach, encourage, and mobilize the youngest generation of pro-life activists. We helped to train other pro-life leaders and groups on how to use the power of social media to help the cause of life. We also continued to lead prayer vigils and protests at abortion mills around the nation, and helped others to learn how to do the same. In 2017, our Youth Outreach leader conducted the official youth rally at the National March for Life in Washington, DC.

16 - Pro-life Day of Silent Solidarity - Our Youth Outreach, under the direction of Bryan Kemper, conducts each year, on the third Tuesday of October, the "Pro-life Day of Silent Solidarity," on which students commit to be totally silent all day as a sign of their solidarity with children in the womb. When someone attempts to speak with them, they hand them a flyer explaining abortion and the reason they are silent. Many lives have been saved as a result of this project.

17 - Civil Rights for the Unborn - Under the leadership of our full-time associate Dr. Alveda King, niece of Martin Luther King Jr., we have continued the work of our African-American Outreach at Priests for Life, known as "Civil Rights for the Unborn." Through a variety of educational and media efforts, Alveda continues to proclaim that the civil rights movement of today is the pro-life movement, and that the dream of her uncle Martin cannot survive if we murder our children. Ms. King took 84 trips that brought her to 19 states. She attended the POTUS Shield Inauguration Invocation, the 2017 Martin Luther King, Jr. Annual Commemorative Service, the Pearl of Purpose Women Empowerment Luncheon, the National Religious Broadcasters Convention and was a Keynote and guest speaker at numerous events across the country. In 2017, Ms. King had over 100 interviews on various television and radio networks such as Fox & Friends, Fox Business News, the Catholic Connection and EWTN's Morning Glory.

18 - Parliamentary Network for Critical Issues - In 2017, PNCI continued to share global and regional news and information related to life life issues and collaboration with parliamentarians, staff, clergy and pro-life NGOs in the U.S., Europe, Africa and Latin America and at the United Nations. Our representative for Priests for Life to the United Nations helped to ensure that Priests for Life used its UN NGO status to promote respect for the right to life and human dignity for all, from conception to natural death. PNCI's newsletter and updates were a recognized source for global pro-life news and regularly reposted on websites including LifeNews and National Right to Life News.

19 - "Have You Seen It?" - At Priests for Life we continue to be convinced that America will not reject abortion until America sees abortion. Therefore, we have developed educational resources that show what abortion does to a child, and initiated grassroots campaigns by which people can challenge one another, on a one-on-one basis and in social media, with the question, "Have you seen it?", urging them to look at the reality of what abortion is before forming an opinion as to whether it should be legal or not.

Form 990 Part III Question 2-The significant program services Priests For Life, Inc. carried out in 2017 are detailed in our response to Form 990 Part III Question 4d-Other program services.

Form 990 Part III Question 4d-Other program services

1-Priests for Life Case Against HHS Mandate -Priests for Life was the fourth group to launch a federal lawsuit against the "HHS Mandate," which is an attack on religious liberty whereby the former presidential administration tried to force religious groups to be complicit in the expansion of abortion and contraception. Our case was heard by the US Supreme Court, along with six other cases challenging the mandate. The high court sent the case back to the lower courts with the instructions that the government and the petitioners were to attempt to work out a solution. Priests for Life participated in those discussions, leading in 2017 to changes in the mandate and a settlement that satisfied all our objections and brought lasting protection to our religious freedom. We signed the settlement and continued to conduct public education about the mandate and about this victory for religious freedom.

2-Exposing Late Term Abortion Project - Priests for Life has initiated an effort to awaken the conscience of the American public that abortions are being carried out legally throughout the full duration of pregnancy, on healthy babies carried by healthy mothers. With the assistance of Abortion Free New Mexico we have commissioned over a dozen different undercover phone calls to clinics across the country where the caller posed as a healthy pregnant woman in the latter stages of a healthy pregnancy. She called to schedule an abortion at 24, 26, 30 and 32 weeks of pregnancy. In every instance she was given the green light to schedule an abortion, even though she made it clear that both she and her baby were healthy. This educational project is meant to break through the ignorance and denial that is so prevalent among our fellow citizens. In conjunction with this project, we have also created a survey which measures people's opinions on late term abortion. It is posted at AbortionSurvey.org.

3-Catholic and Pro-life Presence at National Conferences - Priests for Life continues to provide a strong Catholic presence at various national pro-life conferences. In 2017, Fr. Frank Pavone made major presentations at the National Right to Life Conference, the annual conference of Heartbeat International (network of pregnancy centers) and many other national and local conferences. Fr. Frank led the pro-life events at the Catholic Marketing Network annual national trade show, gave a major presentation at the Blackstone Fellowship and was a key pro-life and Catholic presence along with Executive Director Janet Morana at the three meetings of the Council for National Policy throughout the year.

4 - Fostering Pro-life Activism - Priests for Life participated in a strategic roundtable of pro-life activist leaders, exploring the shape of pro-life "direct action" in our day (protests, prayer vigils at abortion facilities, etc.). Priests for Life likewise has been a strong supporter, and has assisted in organizing local events around the nation, in conjunction with the national "Protest Planned Parenthood" initiative, through which people gather to pray and protest at Planned Parenthood facilities simultaneously from coast to coast on various days.

5 - Norma McCorvey, the Jane Roe of Roe vs. Wade - Fr. Frank Pavone, who in 1998 received Norma McCorvey, the "Jane Roe" of Roe vs. Wade, into the Catholic Church, conducted her funeral service in February of this year. With pro-life leaders from across the nation gathered together to say farewell to this woman who was a beacon of hope that anyone could convert from pro-abortion to pro-life, her passing was a pivotal moment for the United States pro-life movement. The movement recommitted itself not only to educating others about Norma's remarkable journey, but to reaching out with renewed vigor to those who are still on the wrong side of this issue.

6 - Prolife.Church - In 2017, Priests for Life launched ProLife.Church, a special website on which resources will be offered and special projects coordinated to help make Churches more effective in their pro-life activities. The first such project was launched this year in partnership with Heartbeat International and Good Counsel Homes. The project simply urges pastors, in all denominations, to place on their parish bulletins and websites the simple phone number and website at which people can find alternatives to abortion and healing after abortion. This directly assists those who need such help, equips parishioners with the tool to offer such help to those within their reach, and shows the true face of the pro-life movement, which is one of compassion, not condemnation.

7 - Ending the Johnson Amendment - Fr. Frank Pavone's book Abolishing Abortion, published in the summer of 2015, examines at length the misinterpretations of the political activity prohibition for Churches in the tax code, and concludes that Churches should stop censoring themselves out of fear of losing their tax-exempt status. It is an irony that, on the one hand, Churches fight against mandates from the government that restrict their freedom to live out the faith, but then impose their own mandates internally that restrict their freedom to live out the same faith in the political realm. Throughout 2017, we continued to raise awareness about the freedom that the church has and must preserve to preach, teach, and "pass moral judgment even in matters relating to politics" (Second Vatican Council, Gaudium et Spes, n.76). Developments in public policy vindicated our approach, as the current presidential administration instructed federal agencies not to enforce the Johnson Amendment in ways that infringe on the freedom of Churches to speak their minds freely, even in political matters. This does not mean the Church becomes partisan or violates the law, but rather simply that she applies her pro-life teachings to the political arena according to the teaching of the US Bishops' document Living the Gospel of Life (1998).
