Explanation of change in fund balance $34,220

For several years, the Stockton-San Joaquin Public Library has kept & administered a separate bank account in which the grants (donations) with which we provide them (as is our mandate) are kept track of. We provide these monies to the Library to help them cover library program expenses.

We carried this account on our books even though it really no longer is (Friends) our money.

We recently had a change in the Treasurer position on our Board. After discussion it was decided that the Friends would no longer carry what is truly the Library's account on our books.

The Library continues to give us monthly reports on how & on what it is spending our grant.

Dea Smith, Treasurer
