Form 990 (2017)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

To be a catalyst that inspires, connects and mobilizes individual people, churches, businesses and local government towards personal and community transformation KCB provides a variety of homeless services, job development, neighborhood growth opportunities, and other asset-based programs for adults, children and families Connected over 100 low-income neighbors to affordable housing through outreach services, case management, and housing navigation We have leveraged funding from private and county funding to expand our services to 8 different cities Additionally, we have partnered with churches and volunteers to provide breakfast and showers to over 900 individuals every week

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Provided an employment readiness program for individuals who are reentering society for various reasons through job training and mentoring. Through our life-skills training program we are able to partner with other businesses to expand our job placement opportunities. We also created over 20 jobs for these individuals through our own landscape social enterprise company.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Maintained and managed a community center which provides a venue for a variety of community activities. It also serves as an office for three other nonprofit agencies serving low income and homeless individuals and families. The center organized various community activities, such as a community art festival, and mayor's prayer breakfast. We provide these activities since the city of Bellflower lacks the funds to do so.
