Section A. All Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Are all of the organization's supported organizations listed by name in the organization's governing documents? If "No," describe in Part VI how the supported organizations are designated. If designated by class or purpose, describe the designation. If historic and continuing relationship, explain.
2 Did the organization have any supported organization that does not have an IRS determination of status under section 509(a)(1) or (2)? If "Yes," explain in Part VI how the organization determined that the supported organization was described in section 509(a)(1) or (2).
3a Did the organization have a supported organization described in section 501(c)(4), (5), or (6)? If "Yes," answer (b) and (c) below.
b Did the organization confirm that each supported organization qualified under section 501(c)(4), (5), or (6) and satisfied the public support tests under section 509(a)(2)? If "Yes," describe in Part VI when and how the organization made the determination.
c Did the organization ensure that all support to such organizations was used exclusively for section 170(c)(2)(B) purposes? If "Yes," explain in Part VI what controls the organization put in place to ensure such use.
4a Was any supported organization not organized in the United States ("foreign supported organization")? If "Yes," and if you checked 12a or 12b in Part I, answer (b) and (c) below.
b Did the organization have ultimate control and discretion in deciding whether to make grants to the foreign supported organization? If "Yes," describe in Part VI how the organization had such control and discretion despite being controlled or supervised by or in connection with its supported organizations.
c Did the organization support any foreign supported organization that does not have an IRS determination under sections 501(c)(3) and 509(a)(1) or (2)? If "Yes," explain in Part VI what controls the organization used to ensure that all support to the foreign supported organization was used exclusively for section 170(c)(2)(B) purposes.

Part III, Line 28: Education messages were contextually adapted to local nutrition options. The pilot tested the technical system as well as value of the service to women. The pilot enrolled 37 women, trained 4 Kenyan staff in entrepreneurship and research implementation skills.
Developing education messages incorporated staff from a teaching hospital in nutrition and maternal child clinics.

A. Capacity Building in Community Health

• Modular short courses for continuing education for government employees who are community health nurses, public health officers, and community health extension worker that addressed health system quality improvement needs in four different content areas:
(1) supervision and management of community health volunteers (n=15) and (2) Quality data collection for community (n=20 supervisors) and health information services) (3) Community Health Extension Workers (n=10) (4) 2 Day refresher for CHEWs Kinagop (n=22). Note each individual trained serves a population of about 5,000 in low income regions of Kenya.

• Community Health Training for 139 Community Health Volunteers with the basic course and members of 6 Community Health Units trained for improved data collection. This improved community health services to a population base of approximately 30,000.

• Garissa University Course: Unlocking your potential. How community health changes the world (1-week course) was offered and served about 30 students and staff.

• Internship in Community Health: 2 interns.

B. Community Health Research and Innovation Activities

• Understanding delivery decisions of Naivasha sub County mothers (qualitative research) enrolled 55 women who participated in focus group discussions and 6 health care workers from 6 different facilities in the region with the goal of better understanding women choices in where to deliver. This addresses maternal and neonatal mortality problems in a region with a population of 222,000.
