Part III Statement of Program Service AccomplishmentsCheck if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III ☒1 Briefly describe the organization's mission:

North Greenville University believes that the truths found in Holy Scriptures permeate every aspect of reality. All truth is ultimately from God. Therefore, a commitment to academic excellence can be an integral component in the maturation of one's faith. Faculty members meet regularly to study ways in which matters of faith can be brought into the classroom experience. Students are encouraged to participate in the process of integrating faith and learning. North Greenville University strives to be a place where graduates will leave with both an understanding of their chosen fields of endeavor and an appreciation for how the truths of scripture apply to those areas. The University offers the following degrees: the Bachelor of Arts degree, the Bachelor of Science degree, the Master of Business Administration degree, and the Master of Christian Ministries degree. Within the undergraduate degrees there are 36 program options and choices of major.

Part I, Line 2	The financial aid planning office requires students to complete the free application for federal student aid (FAFSA) form to determine eligibility for federal, state and institutional grants, scholarships and loans. This is an equitable formula that measures all assets consistently. In addition to this form, the institution does require some other guidelines in the event that funds are offered based on certain academic credentials or performance in a university sponsored activity or athletic event. These credentials are clearly stated in the university catalog and the university website. Enrollment and eligibility are monitored by the University. Scholarships are applied directly to each student's account.
