Other initiatives offered by Economics Arkansas include CEE/NAEE dues, Arkansas Reads One Book, Program-Other (INSPIRE Program) and public relations. The CEE/NAEE dues allow discounts on economic education materials, priority access to regional and national conferences, award opportunities and occasions to participate in national program initiatives. Arkansas Reads One Book targets grades K-5 and incorporates a reading initiative with economic concept learning. Schools adopt a book and teachers, students and parents read the book together, discussing and learning economic and personal finance concepts therein. Economics Arkansas developed activities and resources for both school and home situations and made them available free for download via its website, www.economicsarkansas.org. The INSPIRE Program is a partnership with Stephens Inc. where Economics Arkansas developed lesson plans and PowerPoint presentations to supplement the "This is Capitalism" video series presented by Stephens Inc. Targeting students in grades 6 - 12, Economics Arkansas offers training to teachers on utilizing this new resource. Economics Arkansas utilizes part of its public relations budget to support teacher and student presentations. Also included are memberships to professional organizations such as Arkansas Association of Educational Administrators and Chambers of Commerce within the state that serve as resources for us to promote the materials and services we make available to Arkansas educational institutions.

Form 990 (2017)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Teacher Professional Development K-12 educators in Arkansas are required to obtain 36 hours per year of professional development training, and we are certified by the Arkansas Department of Education to provide these hours through workshops and in-service training opportunities. We host multi-day workshops in the summer, plus 1-6 hour trainings during the school year. We partner with a variety of entities to provide engaging, creative and user-friendly resources to assist teachers with integrating economic, personal finance and free enterprise concepts into their classrooms no matter what grade level or subject matter they teach. To learn more, visit www.economicsarkansas.org

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

The Stock Market Game(TM) This investment simulation is offered each school year to students in grades 4 - 12 We host two 12-week sessions, one in the fall and one in the spring In addition, we offer a yearlong session from September through April Teachers register student teams to manage and trade "live" a hypothetical $100,000 stock market portfolio Their goal is to grow the portfolio as much as possible during the session for which they registered This standards-based "game" integrates technology, math, social studies, higher-level thinking, team building, and of course, economics into one engaging learning tool for teachers This program served 14,649 students last year An extension of this program is an essay-writing contest called "InvestWrite" where students submit responses to a given investment question Arkansas is proud to have both state and national winners in this program

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Teacher Grants, Awards Program and Resource Development Annually, teachers are invited to submit requests for up to $500 in funding to assist in integrating economic, personal finance and free enterprise projects into their classrooms. At the end of the project, teachers may submit their projects via written application for the opportunity to win a state award, including a cash award and the coveted "Bessie" statue. This year we created a new resource called "Grab & Go" Economics, targeting K-5 teachers. This set of 12 guides highlights basic economic concepts, 3 reproducible activity pages with teaching notes, extension ideas and more. Guides are given to teachers participating in "Grab & Go" workshops or they are available for purchase.

Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	The Arkansas Council on Economic Education and the Economics Arkansas Foundation (the organizations) are tax exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (the Code) and are not private foundations within the meaning of Section 509(a) of the Code. Accounting standards require the organizations to evaluate tax positions and recognize a tax liability (or asset) if the organizations have taken an uncertain position that more likely than not would not be sustained upon examination by the Internal Revenue Service. The organizations have analyzed their tax positions taken and have concluded that as of May 31, 2018 and 2017, there are no uncertain positions taken or expected to be taken that would require the recognition of a liability (or asset) or disclosure in the consolidated financial statements. The organizations may be subject to audit by the Internal Revenue Service, however, there are currently no audits for any tax periods in progress.
