Form 990 (2017)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Instruction, Academic Support, Research and Student Scholarships St Mary's University is committed to academic excellence and student outcomes Academic achievement, sense of community and holistic learning are part of what sets a St Mary's education apart With an enrollment of 3649 students, the 11-to-1 student-to-faculty ratio enables students to receive personalized attention, the University has approximately 75 undergraduate, graduate and law programs featuring 1 doctoral degree, 5 law programs and 6 graduate certificate options

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Student and Community Service Programs St Mary's University provides students with opportunities to develop leadership skills in student, academic, social and professional organizations. Students may also participate in civic engagement activities and service to others through community outreach. Facilities include spaces for study and recreation.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Auxiliary Enterprises St Mary's University offers 12 residence halls that provide a wide variety of communities. Each hall serves a different type of student community and provides a variety of programs and spaces for students to study, be active, and relax. Students who live on campus are more likely to complete their degree, are more involved in campus life, have a better self-image, achieve higher grades, and are more satisfied with their college experience. Auxiliary Enterprises also include six campus dining venues and a book store.

Racially Nondiscriminatory Policy	PART I, LINE 3 The policy is included in all student catalogues and brochures, in the student application forms, employment applications, and on the University's website accessible to the public at www.stmarytx.edu/policies/. Following are the disclosures included in the student application process. St Mary's University is an equal education opportunity institution. The University's admission standards and practices are free from discrimination on the basis of age, sex, race, creed, color, disability, ethnicity or national origin. In Compliance with Title IX, St Mary's University does not discriminate on the basis of sex in the education programs or activities it operates. Questions regarding Title IX may be referred to the St Mary's University Title IX Officer or to the Office of Civil Rights, U S Department of Education. St Mary's University is committed to assisting all members of the community in providing for their own safety and security. The Annual Security and Fire Safety Report is available online. If you would like a hard copy of the report, stop by the St Mary's Police Department Office at One Camino Santa Maria, San Antonio, Texas 78228 or request a copy be mailed to you by calling 210-436-3330. The report contains information, required by law, regarding campus security and personal safety. The report also contains information about fire statistics in campus residential facilities and crime statistics for the three previous calendar years that occurred on campus, property owned or controlled by the University, and public property within, or immediately adjacent to and accessible from the campus. Information regarding graduation and retention rates is available online. Final admission will be granted only after a final transcript of high school and/or college work is received. All material sent to St Mary's University becomes the property of the University and will not be released.
Financial aid or assistance from a government agency	PART I, LINE 6A Financial Aid is provided to eligible students through a number of governmental programs, including U S Department of Education and Texas Equalization Grant Programs. The University is the direct recipient of Federal grants from the U S Department of Justice, the National Endowment for the Humanities, the National Science Foundation, the U S Department of Health and Human Services, and the U S Department of Education. In addition, the University receives pass-through grants from the U S Department of Transportation and the U S Department of Health and Human Services. Federal and State awards are audited annually according to the compliance requirements of the programs.
