Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule D, Part X, Line 2	The School of Law accounts for the effect of any uncertain tax positions based on a "more likely than not" threshold to the recognition of the tax positions being sustained based on the technical merits of the position under scrutiny by the applicable taxing authority. If a tax position or positions are deemed to result in uncertainties of those positions, the unrecognized tax benefit is estimated based on a "cumulative probability assessment" that aggregates the estimated tax liability for all uncertain tax positions. The School of Law has identified its tax status as a tax exempt entity as its only significant tax position, however, the School of Law has determined that such tax position does not result in an uncertainty requiring recognition. The School of Law is not currently under examination by any taxing jurisdictions. The School of Law's federal tax return is generally open for examination for three years following the date filed.

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule J, Part I, Line 3	The President of Roger Williams University and Roger Williams University School of Law is compensated by the University. The President's compensation is contractually set and is reviewed by the Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees of Roger Williams University, all members of which are independent of the President. The Executive Committee's review currently includes, but is not limited to the use of comparability data and other outside consultants.
Schedule J, Part I, Line 4	The President of Roger Williams University participated in a University 457(f) plan and $25,000 was accrued under the plan in calendar year 2017.
Schedule J, Part I, Line 7	For School of Law non-aligned employees, merit based compensation may be granted as either a base salary increase or a one-time bonus. Qualifications for receiving a bonus include performance exceeding expectations or taking on additional duties due to staff vacancies or temporary absences. In the case of officers and other key employees, the bonus amount (if any) is determined via the same process as other compensation for officers and other key employees, including review by the University's President, who is independent of the other officers or key employees. In addition, the compensation of officers and key employees falls within the parameters of the School of Law's non-aligned merit compensation program that is approved by the University's Board of Trustees on an annual basis.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part III, Line 1	The mission of the School of Law is to promote justice and the rule of law through education, scholarship, and service. In furtherance of its mission, the School of Law seeks to 1 Provide an excellent legal education to men and women who aspire to the practice of law or to other occupations in which both they and society-at-large will benefit from their understanding of and dedication to the law. An excellent legal education teaches not only legal doctrine, policy, history and theory, but also how to think critically about justice and the law. 2 Make meaningful contributions to legal scholarship. Meaningful contributions are those that provide original analysis, insights, or information to those who are interested in justice and the law, including lawyers, judges, legislators, policy-makers, scholars, journalists, and the public at large. 3 Provide service to the legal profession and the wider community in ways that advance justice and the rule of law.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11b	IRS form 990 is prepared by the Controller, VP for Accounting and Treasury Management, and the Executive VP for Finance and Administration along with assistance from the University's Office of General Counsel. The completed Form 990 and schedules, along with relevant back up are provided to an independent accounting firm for review. Upon completion, the form is provided to the Audit Committee and the Board of Trustees of Roger Williams University for review, discussion and approval. The completed and approved Form 990 is then sent to all members of the Board of Trustees of the University as well as the Board of Directors of the School of Law prior to filing with the IRS.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c	Directors, officers, key employees and managers are all required to annually (or more frequently in the event of a new potential conflict) disclose any potential conflicts of interest by completing a conflict of interest disclosure form. These disclosures are collected by the Office of General Counsel, compiled into a report and provided for vetting to either (a) senior management for the officers, key employees, and managers or (b) the School of Law's Board of Directors for the Director's disclosures. Those disclosures that require further investigation or attention are addressed by their respective overseers on a case by case basis. The School of Law's Conflict of Interest Policy and by-laws both contain provisions that provide for individuals with actual or potential conflicts to refrain from participating in discussions of, and voting on, matters where such a conflict exists.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15	The compensation for the School of Law's top management official (President of Roger Williams University) is contractually set and is reviewed by the Executive Committee and the Board of Trustees of Roger Williams University, all members of which are independent of the President. The Executive Committee's review currently includes, but is not limited to, the use of comparability data and other outside consultants. The process for determining compensation for the School of Law's other officers or key employees currently includes, but is not limited to, the use of comparability data, other outside consultants and is set and reviewed by the President, who is independent of the other officers and key employees. In addition, the compensation of officers and key employees falls within the parameters of the University's non-aligned merit compensation program that is approved by the Board of Trustees on an annual basis.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19	Governing documents are available in part through the Rhode Island Secretary of State's Office. The School of Law's Conflict of Interest Policy governing its employees and the corresponding disclosure form is available on University's web site.
