The responses are then reviewed by the Foundation's in-house legal counsel, with any potential conflicts reviewed with the Nominating and Governance Committee of the Board and the full Board as appropriate.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Line 15a Compensation Review & Approval Process - CEO, Top Management	The Foundation's salary structure is market-driven and undergoes a rigorous, periodic review under which compensation levels are compared to organizations of similar size and mission. The salaries and benefits of the UCONN Foundation's officers and key employees are subject to approval in advance of payment by a majority of disinterested directors on the HR Committee of the Board of Directors, and subsequently, by a majority of disinterested directors on the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors. The officers and key employees are not in a position of control with respect to either Committee. The Committees rely on appropriate comparability data in determining the reasonableness of the compensation packages. Minutes adequately documenting the basis for the HR Committee's and the Executive Committee's decisions are maintained. The approval of compensation packages occurs in June for compensation to be paid in the subsequent fiscal year.

Provide additional information for responses to questions on Schedule R (see instructions)

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule R - Related Organizations	While the mission of the Foundation is to support the University, under IRS instructions, the University does not meet the definition of a "related organization". The Foundation has ten ex-officio board members, six of whom serve by virtue of their position as a University employee. None of the six University employees are counted in determining quorum and none are entitled to vote on matters before the Board. No compensation is paid by the Foundation for their service as directors.
