Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule C, Part II-B, Line 1	The University, through the Association of Governing Boards, contacts the Board of Trustees periodically to urge them to contact their legislators regarding funding support issues such as New York State (NYS) Bundy Aid and the NYS Tuition Assistance Program. Alumni are also periodically encouraged to contact their state and federal representatives. The President, Chief Financial Officer and the External Relations Office sign official communications including lobbying appeals. The office is principally responsible for monitoring government action at the local, state and federal levels, reporting significant actions which impact the University to appropriate offices, and where appropriate, to lobbying legislative and executive bodies. The vast majority of lobbying communications and direct contact with legislators or legislative staff members emanates from this office. The University conveyed its position on various state and federal issues, as well as miscellaneous economic development, energy and environmental issues.

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule F, Part I, Line 2	The University monitors the use of grant funds for research sub-awards outside the United States by requiring technical reports which are reviewed and approved by the University before submitting payment. We also have a comprehensive monitoring process by which all sub-recipients are evaluated prior to obtaining an award. Research expenditures for this program are for undergraduates, these are pre-approved by the funding agency and technical reports are submitted upon completion of trip for review and approval. All University expenditure guidelines are followed before payments are disbursed for program expenditures. Grant funds are verified in the student financial aid process according to University procedures and distributed as credits to student receivable accounts at the University.

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule I, Part I, Line 2	The University provides funding to faculty and students for scholarships, research and other projects. Expenses must be substantiated under the Accountability Plan to ensure proper use of funds. Students must meet the requirements specified in the respective award program in order to receive the award. The requirements include criteria such as financial need, obtaining/maintaining the required grade point average and studying in a certain academic discipline, etc. If the scholarship is ongoing, the student must continue to meet the scholarship requirements in order to be awarded a scholarship in subsequent years. Financial need, grade point averages and other scholarship criteria are continually monitored to determine whether the student meets the criteria.

Part III Supplemental Information

Provide the information, explanation, or descriptions required for Part I, lines 1a, 1b, 3, 4a, 4b, 4c, 5a, 5b, 6a, 6b, 7, and 8, and for Part II. Also complete this part for any additional information.

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule J, Part I, Line 1a	Travel for companions and gross up payments were provided to an officer of the University. These benefits were provided as taxable compensation. The non-taxable benefit is included in Part II, Column D. A personal residence was provided to the President as a mandatory condition of employment and was not taxable based on section 119 of IRC.
Schedule J, Part I, Line 4	The President participates in a non qualified deferred compensation retirement plan. The plan was created during 2010 with the approval of the Executive Committee, an independent and disinterested party, in order to align the President's total compensation with comparable universities and to ensure the President's long-term employment with Clarkson University. The current year distribution from the plan was $450,000, plus accrued interest, for a total of $471,669. This distribution included $250,000 of prior year contributions, which have been previously reported on Form 990 over the past two years.
Schedule J, Part I, Line 7	The Executive Committee may, at its discretion, award the President a performance award each year in connection with an evaluation of his performance. The evaluation is based upon his accomplishments against goals and objectives during the year. The President may, at his discretion, award employees with a performance award. The Vice President for Development & Alumni Relations and the Head Women's Hockey Coach were both given this award based on an evaluation of their performance. The evaluation is based upon their accomplishments against goals and objectives during the year.
