Part I Summary

Activities & Governance

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission or most significant activities

The Rochester School of the Holy Childhood (the Agency) has as its mission preparing children and adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities for maximum independence and integration in the community through individualized programs and services. The School Program is a New York State Department of Education-certified school providing instruction to students ages 5-21, serving 120 students from over 40 school districts based on each student's Individualized Education Plan (IEP). Adults are served in multiple settings both campus-based and community-based with an array of clinical, vocational and habilitative services. A suite of employment services focuses on transition to community-based work experiences and competitive employment. The Agency's primary revenue sources are the New York State Education Department, Medicaid, the New York State Office for People with Developmental Disabilities and support from the general public.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11b	The Agency's informational federal and state tax returns will be submitted, before filing, to the Chair of the Finance and Audit Committee for mandatory review, and provided to the other members of the Board for review at their discretion

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c	Before initial election to the Board, and annually thereafter, a director must complete the Conflict of Interest and Commitment Disclosure form. Information disclosed on the form will be held in confidence, except when, after consultation with the director, the Agency's best interests are served by disclosure. Each director must complete, sign and date the form and return the form to the Corporate Compliance Officer through the Corporate Secretary. Director questions and concerns about potential conflicts should be directed to the Audit Committee through the Corporate Compliance Officer. Any director who knows or suspects that a situation meets the criteria for a conflict of interest as defined in this policy must report it to the Audit Committee through the Corporate Compliance Officer immediately so that appropriate and timely follow-up can occur with the involved parties. The forms will be reviewed by the Audit Committee and the Corporate Compliance Officer for potential conflicts of interest. Those items which are deemed not to be conflicts of interest will be so noted on the form and no further action will be needed. Those items which are deemed to be potential conflicts of interest will be reviewed with the Chairman of the Board. The Chairman of the Board may review the potential conflict of interest with that director to obtain additional facts surrounding the potential conflict to determine if a true conflict exists. If further discussion with the director it is deemed not to be a conflict of interest it will be so noted on the form and no further action will be needed. If through further discussion with the director it is deemed that a conflict of interest does exist, the Chairman of the Board will create a resolution to the conflict with the Audit Committee and Corporate Compliance Officer. No director may be present at or participate in board or committee deliberations or vote on the matter giving rise to such conflict. The resolution of the conflict will be documented in the Audit Committee Meeting minutes in which the conflict and resolution was discussed. The resolution of the Chairman of the Board and of the Audit Committee will be considered final. There will be no appeal process.
