Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule D, Part X, Line 2	The Corporation is exempt from federal income taxes under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and applicable state law. The Corporation is not classified as a private foundation. The accounting standard on accounting for uncertainty in income taxes addresses the determination as to whether tax benefits claimed or expected to be claimed on a tax return should be recorded in the financial statements. Under that guidance, the Corporation may recognize benefit from uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by taxing authorities based on the technical merits of the position. Examples of tax positions include the tax exempt status of the Corporation and various positions relating to the potential sources of unrelated business taxable income (UBIT). Tax benefits would be recognized in the financial statements from such a position and be measured based on the largest benefit that has a greater than 50 percent likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement. The Corporation asserts there were no unrecognized tax benefits identified or recorded as liabilities for the year ended June 30, 2018. The Corporation files form 990 in the US federal jurisdiction. The Corporation is generally no longer subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service for years before 2013.
