Schedule D, Part X, Line 2	As of June 30, 2018, the College was unable to estimate the range of settlement dates and the related probabilities for certain asbestos remediation asset retirement obligations (ARO's). These conditional ARO's are primarily related to the asbestos that the College would remediate only if it performed major renovations of certain buildings. Because the conditional obligations have indeterminate settlement dates, the College could not develop a reasonable estimate of their fair values. The College will continue to assess its ability to estimate fair values at each future reporting date. Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule J, Part I, Line 1a	Housing was provided for the Vice President of Advancement and the President. Only a portion of the President's housing is considered taxable since a substantial portion of the residence is used for College events and activities. Transportation is provided for the President's spouse when they are considered to be traveling on College business. Housekeeping services are provided for the President and are treated as a taxable benefit.
Schedule J, Part I, Line 3	The annual compensation of the President is established by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Trustees, subject to approval by the full Board of Trustees. A wide array of feedback from stakeholders including Trustees, Parents Council, and the President's direct reports is reviewed by the Compensation Committee. In addition, the Human Resources Office provides comparative data from the CUPA salary survey and collects data from the 990 returns filed by the College's competitors. The Compensation Committee also reviews the annual performance appraisals of all other College officers.
Schedule J, Part II	Other reportable compensation for President Williams includes the use of a College vehicle, College provided housing and housekeeping services. Other compensation for Ms. Speck reflects payments made under a supplemental executive retirement plan.
